

THURSDAY
August 8

In the Wink of a Heartbeat

75 CENTS

A death row comedy by Wendy Jo Cohen

Death penalty for bomber-murderess!

“I was framed! That house was destroyed by a sinkhole,” says Starleigh Squibb

BY VIRGINIA GREGG

EAST SHOKANAWA - Convicted killer Starleigh Squibb showed no remorse today when questioned outside the East Shokanawe County courthouse shortly after receiving a sentence of death for the bombing of the home at 17 notawok street in April of this year. Still making the ridiculous assertion that a sinkhole was responsible for the tragedy, which convicted murderess

included the destruction of her ex-husband's house and the death of Randi Blauczek, Mr. Squibb's fiancée, Ms. Squibb remained defiant as she was led away by police officers. "I am a thousand percent innocent of any bombing," Ms. Squibb told reporters, demonstrating both her ignorance of local geology, and Gene Plover, stand by their client, stating their belief that Ms. Squibb was unfairly convicted on emotional, rather than legal, grounds, and promising to begin the appeal process immediately.

Meanwhile, the victim's identical twin sister, Rita Blauczek, expressed her satisfaction with both the verdict and the sentence. "That bitch will fry," she said, "and for that I'm grateful." Ms. Blauczek seemed unaware that the electric chair has not

